REPUBLICANS OF MILWAUKEE!

The whole State of Wisconsin is leoking to see what Milwankee City and County will do at the election next Tuesday. On the one hand, the Douglas men are whispering round, that many Republicans, careless of consequences, lukewarm in faith, or heedless of principle, will, from personal or local considerations, vote for one or more of the Democratic nominees. On the other hand, our friends confidently believe and openly assert, that the entire Republican vote of Milwankee will be polled for the straight Republican ticket—Electores, Congress, State and County. We concur in this opinion. We entertain no doubt as to the result here. We are firmly convinced that the Republican can vote will be a unit for the Republican olders, and a heavy calf-skin shoe; about twelve or fourteen years of age.

Our triumph in this State and in the United States, is already assured toyond a doubt. Let us make it complete by winning a signal victory in Milwankee. One week more of active, united, persevering effort, will do it. Who will refuse to do his part toward ensuring se glorious a result?

AN INFAMOUS HANDBILL. Gross Insult to Mechanics and Working

We saw yesterday a copy of an anonymous handbill, printed in German, and addressed to our "German Fellow-Citizens," in which it was charged that the object of Republicans, in securing protection to AMERICAN INDUSTRY and ENTERPRIZE and building up Home Manufactures, was only to obtain better facilities for debauching the female opavatives, wives and daughters of our mechanics and working-men, who might be employed in such establishments. A viler calnmny was never uttered. What can a party hope to gain by putting forth such atrocious falsehoods /

DEATH OF DR. WM. B. EGAN .- We regret to announce the demise of Dr. Wm. B. Egan, of this city, on Saturday morning last, after a painful illness of some weeks duration, in the 53d year of his age. Dr. Egan was one of our oldest residents, having some this city with a portion of the United States troops in 1830 or 1831—nearly thirty years ago. He was at that time a praccing physician.

Since that period the Doctor has held a rominent position in this city and county and filled several important public offices.—

He was recorder of our county, member of the Legislature, &c. Dr. Egan was a rips scholar, a polished entleman, and a man of much more than ordinary general intelligence. The city and vicinity are indebted to him for many of our vicinity are indebted to him for many of our improvements in agriculture, horticulture, raising of stock, &c., &c. Dr. Egan was a native of Killarney,county

Dr. Egan was a native of Killarney, county of Kerry, Ireland, whence he emigrated, but not until he had received that thorough elessical and mathematical education for which that county in his native land is so famous the world over. The writer of this has oftenheard him enlarge upon the sublime beauties of nature in that part of Ireland, and no man could exceed him in his descriptions of natural scenery. He had indeed an intense natural scenery. He had indeed an intensi love for all that was beautiful in nature and love for all that was beautiful in nature and art, and did all in his power to give form to his ideas of what he considered the perfection of rural scenery. To make "the wilderness blossom as the rose" and "the desert places glad" was the Alpha and Omega of Dr. Egan's ambition; and both of his beautifully haid out places in this city—his residence on the West Side, and Egandale, on the South—testify to his ardent aspirations and attachments in this respect.

Dr. Egan leaves a wife and family to mourn his, to them, irreparable loss—a loss which will also be keenly felt by our city in many ways, for there was no man who was more ardently attached to Chicago, or, in his particular sphere, did more for its advancement and prosperity, than Dr. Wm. B. Egan.—Unicago Democra' of Festerday.

Entron:—As you have been aireary informed by your regular correspondent, who remained at Chicago to collect further information regarding that place, our party accepted a very cordial invitation extended by the Board of Commerce of this city, and the Board of Commerce of this city, and started at 9 o'clock last evening, being provided with special cars by the Chicago and Milwaukse Railroad Company. Notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, we were met at Kenosha, about thirty miles from here, by a committee consisting of Messrs. Wm. H. Barclay, S. T. Hooker, and other prominent representatives of the commercial interests of this beautiful city—surnamed the Fair White City or Queen of the Lakes. I suppose that the representatives.

I suppose that the very poetical name first given originates from the color of the great majority of the buildings here, which are constructed of a cream colored brick, for which blitwankes has attained a great celeb-rity. Upon our arrival at the hotel a still larger deputation were waiting to recieve us. and the general expression of satisfaction that we had altered our programme as to enable us to pay them a visit, was exceedingly gratifying to all.

One of the most surprising features of the West is the magnificence of their hotels.—

their quarters, is really a superb structure. It is situated at the corner of Main and Michigan streets, fronting on the former one hundred and eighty feet, and on the latter one hundred and twenty feet. There are in the hotel two hundred and seventy six rooms for guests, besides parlors, reading and re-caption rooms, &c. The cost of the house was $160,000, furniture $80,000. Messra. Rice and Andrews, the proprietors, have spared no effort to make us comfortable, and have contributed in every possible way to the enjoyment and convenience of us all. Milwaulce shares with Chicago the im-mense grain and lumber trade of the West, and it is marvellous to think that a city which now imports merchandize to the amount of $32,000,000, and exports $25,000,000, should have been but a few years 900,000, should have been but a few years ago nothing but a forest, the home of the Indian, the wild deer, and the plumaged songsters, and that it has so quickly melted away beneath the axe of the woodman, so that neither stump, nor trea, ner lone Indian now saist to tell of the once great woods sleeping by the Lake. The manufacturing interests of Milwaukee have kept pace with the commercial. In 1859 the amount of her manufactures was about $12,000,000, and they are increasing from year to year with genuine increasing from year to year with genuine western rapidity.

Milwaukee is the commercial emportum

Anilwankee is the commercial emporium of Wisconsin, a State of ample size, and embracing every variety of surface. Youthful "Wide Awates."- The "Wide Awake" infection is spreading among the "boys." Last evening, a large party of young lads, with drums, banners and torches, paraded through the Seventh Ward, cheering the Republican candidates and having already accepted that of the Demomany of our Republican citizens. HALR'S CORNERS, Greenfield, Oct. 29. MESSES. EDITORS:-On Saturday night last, we had another very encouraging gathering of the Republicans of this town at Stuber's Hall, near the centre of the town, on the well known Janeaville Plank Road Messra. PAINE and Conswell thad been advertised to hold one of their campaign meetings, and though notice was not general, yet a large audience assembled to hear those speakers as well as Messrs. Offen-BOURG and WINKLER, from your city, who spoke in German. The chief feature of the the Railroad Indebtedness, and a compension of its evening was the torch-light procession extemporized by the Hale's Corner's Wide Awakes, Capt. Exyludron, a new organization here, who thirty-five strong, marched down to the place of meeting nearly four miles, and added much to the enthusiasm of the evening. Dr. C. KRAUK, a well known and highly espected German citizen, was chairman, and the speeches were short, pithy and well received. The greatest enthusizem prevailed, which argues well for a very largely inorensed Republican vote in this town. The Real Estate Agent. Wide Awake's procession was a sore pill to the nuterrified. They had no idea that Under Newhall House Michigan St. there were Republicans enough in town to get up such a thing, and when they marched over the hill down past LAVIS', where the Squatters were listening to ARNOLD. they were taken as a portion of the latter's andience, and were about to be received with open arms, when a rousing cheer for "LINCOLN and HAMLIN" opened their eyes, and they slunk back, and resorted to the use of the regular Democratic arguments of slang epithets, &c. I tell you, look out for breakers in this Democratic stronghold .-Next Thursday we turn out again to give Schurz a reception, and on Saturday night several wagon loads are going over to the 'Corner' to hear him there. The Contest Abandoned. THE ELECTION OF LINCOLN

CONCEDED!!

November contest, and no well informed politician has questioned the fact, that, i NEW YORK voted for LINCOLN, his election was as cure as fate. That New York will se vote, by a majority of tens of thousands, we are and have been entirely confident .-This result was conceded on all hauds, so long as the Bril, Brickings of and Doug-LAS parties, like the REPUBLICANS, had their distinctive tickets in the field.

But when, under the manipulating process of the Dry Goods and Cotton Committees in New York City and the melting influences of a very large "corruption fund," candidate after candidate and ticket after ticket, were withdrawn from the canvass, and a Fusion-Know Nothing-Breckingidge-Douglas ticket, not nominated by any party, or any people; but selected in caucus by a r monied men; representing no principle. pledged to no candidate, and relying for anocess solely upon the power of money, or, in plainer terms, upon BRIBERT AND CORRUP-TION-when this ticket was placarded all over the Empire State, and the cry of "the Union in danger," everywhere simultane. ously raised in its behalf; some few oredulous Democrats took courage at the prospect, and now and then a faint hearted Republican had fears about the result. Let the latter dismiss their fears and the former resign themselves to their fate. The developments of the last week in New York are conclusive. We do not rely upon the testimony of friends alone-who all insist that New York will roll up an overwhelming majority for LINCOLN and HAMLIN-we cite only that of our opponents. The New York Herald has been, from the ant of the Republican cause and candidates; just taken. It foots up thus: "Fusion" among all other parties "to defeat the Herald has been district. 1,931,795.

Lizuorn." In this cause, the Herald has the most exprest and persistent advocate of LURGOLN." In this cause, the Herald has labored in season and out of season, day and night, through good report and evil report, us to expect, though not to the expectations for six, or eight weeks past. And to ! the subsequently formed by the people of Ohio. result. Address JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN, Publishers Daily Septinel, Nilwauken, Wis-ROBIN RED BREAST. There is a superstition current in Britishy that and since that time the red broast has been the friend and favorite of men.

Up Mount Calvary's heights ascending, Tolted the Man of sorrows on, Doomed to die for man's transgressions, He, God's sinless, only son.

On that brow, guilt never clouded, A crown of thorns He metaly wore, While like ruby dew-drops guthered, Round each point see crimson gore. Fainting 'neath the cross, Hts burden, From His line no accents flow. From His lips no accents flow, Eave "Forgive them, Heavenly Father, For they know not what they do?"

All unmoved, God's chosen people Heard the neek, forgiving word, And no throb of Luman pity In their stopy bosons surred. But a wild bird o'er them flying, Caught the phintive, pleading tone, And and thorn plucked from His forehead, As if to shame man's heart of stone,

From its tiny beak descending, Touched the point its little breast, And upon the glossy plamage Its own crimson hue impressed.

And still that sanguinary color Dyes the bosom of the bird. And still near the homes of Christians, Are its sweetest warblings heard.

> FANNY FREE ON JACK WILSON .- FRONY Fern, white on her western tour last summer, made a trip on the Lady Eigin. She gives to her grief at the fate of the brave commander. "Foor Captain Jack Wilson, with his handsome, sunshiny face, cheary voice and manly ways! How little I thought there was no next summer for him. thought there was no next summer for him when he so kindly helped me up on the hur-ricane deck, and into the cosy little pilot house, to look about; who was always sending me word to come 'forward' or 'aft,' because he knew I so much enjoyed seeing all beautiful things; who was all goodness, all kindness, and yet, in a few hours after we left him, found a grave in that ornel surf!— The afternoon of the day we had said our last The afternoon of the day we had said our last good-bye to him, on the Chicago pier, we had taken a carriage to drive around the city, and reined up at a 'draw' for a boat to pass through. It was the Lady Elgin going forth to meet her doom! We kissed our hands gaily at her in the bright sunshine 'for aild lang syne,' and that night as we slept in our beds at the hotel, that brave heart, with a wailing babe pressed to it, had only that treacherous raft between him and etsroity. The poor Captain. How can we give him up? As his strong arm sustained the helpless on that fearful night, may God support his own gentle ones, for whom our hearts ache, in this their direst need."

HANGING BY THE WHOLESALE IN TEXAS. HARGING BY THE WHOLESALE IN TEXAS.
The Navero Express of the 5th says: On Tuesday morning of the 2d inst. four respectable citizens of this county, all members of our county court, were found hung in the public square of this town. Various are the conjectures as to the cause of this infortunate affair. We presume, however, that it was owing to the fast that they were members of the county court. In saying this, we must here enter our declaration that we know of no conduct of theirs which deserved such severe penalty. It is thought that we know of no conduct of theirs which deserved such severe penalty. It is thought that the presence of the Chief Justice would have raved them from this fats. As we will hereafter speak more of this matter, we withhold comment until further developements shall put us in possession of all the facts connected with this melancholy affair.

ORIENTAL MODE OF DETECTION.—I heard of an ingenious way of detecting a pilferer. The party who had been robbed, drove a wooden pin into the door of a dark inner room, and annointed it thoroughly with a preparation of Hing or assafetida. He then assembled his servants, one of whom he knew must be the thief, and after a preliminary ceremony to awaken their superstitious fears, he said, "Now go into that room singly, and lay firmly hold of the pin; the guilty party will stick to it, the others need have no fears." The servants having gone in and returned one at a time, their hands were examined, and all but one were found to sme! ORIENTAL MODE OF DETECTION .- I heard amined, and all but one were found to smell atrongly of assafetida. That one was, of course, the thief—as, knowing himself to be be unobserved, he had not touched the pin for fear of sticking to it, as he had been told he would—and his house being searched, the stolen property was found therein. Axing for HSB."-Golonel Dick Mash tells a rich story about "axing for her," in his early days. He was deeply smitten with the daughter of a wealthy old skindint ro-aiding in Alabama. The Colonel, self con-
